A call to our Volunteer helpers!

Many thanks to all our lovely volunteers who have helped stamp and organise the new school home readers. Mrs Malone has been busy cutting clear contact to size for these readers and this Friday afternoon from 1.00pm we would appreciate any willing helpers to come to the library and help get these readers covered. If you cannot make this Friday but would be willing to do some covering on another day or in the holidays please contact Shaunagh in the office.
